- Who makes you smile?
- You are loved, don't forget it!

Get creative with these and have fun, but remember that they should be general enough for any of their classmates! The idea is that a student could grab one in the morning, or when they're feeling low, and that slip will put a smile on their face! Have your be nice. leadership group work on the Smile Slips. The idea is to create a couple hundred – if you have 10 students who make 20 notes, that's 200 in a short amount of time! Keep going!

Put the slips in a bucket or basket, maybe on a bulletin board by the front entrance to school. Make a cute sign that briefly tells students what Smile Slips are. This could be a one-day thing, or maybe you keep the slips there for a week. Smile Slips could be the thing that empowers a student to make it through the day!
